About Abu Dhabi

As the capital of the United Arab Emirates, Abu Dhabi is an exciting and vibrant city that is growing tremendously to become one of the most popular destinations in the world. With a mix of modern cosmopolitan structures and authentic Arabian locations, Abu Dhabi sits comfortably at the crossroads of Asia, Africa and the Middle East, and this unique geographic position gives it the advantage of being easily accessible and feasible for film and television production.

Locations in Abu Dhabi

It's easy to see why Abu Dhabi is fast becoming one of the leading choices for international filmmakers. The city and the rest of the Emirate offer an incredible variety of locations that include everything from beaches, oceans, coastline, desert, oases, and iconic Arabian architecture to luxurious hotels, towering skyscrapers, beautiful parks, modern cityscape and urban complexes. With more developments being completed every year, the list of locations to shoot in can accommodate every budget and every creative requirement.

Weather in Abu Dhabi

Even though Abu Dhabi has a sub-tropical climate, the city enjoys pleasant weather from October to April. Abundant sunshine, blue skies, and cool nights can be expected during these months, and with world-class cooling technology, even the most demanding outdoor shoot during the rest of the year can be completed in comfort.

About Abu Dhabi Film Commission

Since its launch in 2009, Abu Dhabi Film Commission has been committed to their mandate of supporting the development of a growing film and TV industry, and promoting the Emirate of Abu Dhabi as a filming location. As a subsidiary of the Media Zone Authority, our mission is to create a sustainable Arabic media industry and establish Abu Dhabi as a regional centre of excellence for Arabic media and entertainment content creation.
